October 1902 16th	I inspected the Jail on the morning of the 7th instant and found every thing in excellent order. The health and comforts of the prisoners are being properly attended to. — Strict discipline is maintained. — The Wards and grounds are kept scrupulously clean. Nearly all the prisoners have recently been inoculated. In short; Mr, Achyuta Row's management of the Jail leaves nothing to be desired. The kitchen arrangements are far from satisfactory. Could not a remedy be secured? (Signed) C. Sreenivasiengar Member of Council. Copy (Signed) P.S. Achyuta Row Superintendent Mysore Jail. Copy Lt.-Colonel I.M.S.
